2 Boys Swim To Safety After Boat Overturns

Tullytown Worker Aids In Rescue

Exhausted Youths Pulled Ashore After Ordeal

Combining their swimming abilities with quick thinking by a Tullytown service station operator, two Levittown youths defied a watery death in Tullytown yesterday.

The boys, junior life guards and swim instructors at the Indian Creek pool, put their training to good use when a rowboat in which they were paddling in Warner's Cove shipped water and sank 200 yards from land.

The two, Robert Edwards, 14, of 15 Ironwood road, Indian Creek, and Donald Phillips, 15, of 9 Inwood road, Indian Creek, were administered oxygen and taken to the Delaware Valley Hospital, where today they are recovering from exhaustion and exposure.

The tired swimmers might not have gotten to shore alive but for the action of a Tullytown service station operator.

Levittown Women Set Library Drive

Wednesday, March 27, will be "L-Day" for more than 500 women in the Levittown area who have volunteered to solicit for the Library Building Fund Drive. It was announced today by Mrs. Sandra Kershaw, 154 Upper Orchard Drive, chairman of the Women's Division.

"For many weeks now," Mrs. Kershaw said, "we have been working on the organization of our house-to-house solicitation."

Chilling Rain Is Expected

Winter has only two more days to live but isn't going under without a fight.

A chilly 33 at 6:30 this morning shook the mercury with temperatures expected today to climb no higher than the mid 50's.

For tonight, the Weather Bureau at Trenton sees a chilling rain with overnight temperatures near the middle 30's. The weatherman said it would stay just warm enough to make the precipitation rain and not snow.

Tomorrow will be rainy in the morning with clearing skies figured for afternoon. Seasonable temperatures in the 40's are on tap for tomorrow. Yesterday's high was a moderate 61 at 3 p.m.

Spring makes its official debut Wednesday at 4:17 p.m.

Jewish Couple Fight For Catholic Girl

MIAMI BEACH (UP)—A Jewish couple battling to keep their Catholic-born adopted daughter planned to seek the Florida governor's aid today in "a last stand" against Massachusetts authorities.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Bentley Ellis have dodged authorities and process servers in seven cities and six states since the Massachusetts Supreme Court ordered them in 1955 to return six-year-old Hildy McCoy Ellis to her natural mother.

"We are not running anymore," Ellis told the United Press. "This is a last stand — a final battle."

With the exception of the Willowood section, where we have been unable to secure a captain, our teams are all set and ready to go."

Mrs. Kershaw explained that each section in Levittown will be captained by a resident of that section. The captains have recruited workers from their section in sufficient numbers to enable them to contact every home on the night of the drive.

"In 15 of the sections, the drive is being carried out by the members of the women's club," Mrs. Kershaw stated. "We are indeed grateful to these organizations for the enthusiasm they have shown in supporting the library. Many of the clubs have already conducted projects of their own for the benefit of the library and deserve an extra vote of thanks for taking on this additional work," she continued.

Captains Cited

She cited the following sectional captains as those representing women's clubs: Mrs. Margaret Whitcomb, 26 Aster Lane, Appleton; Mrs. Charles Markley, 32 Canal Road, Cobalt Ridge; Mrs. Rosemary Schultz, 9 Patricia St., Green Lynn; Mrs. Marge Daly, 27 Hollyhock Lane, Holly Hill; Mrs. Mary Hall, 57 Jolly Lane, Junewood; Mrs. Jane Aires, 5 Jadewood, Juniper Hill; Mrs. Terry Mohr, 66 Kingapple Lane, Kenwood.

Ike Gives OK To Scan Tax Returns

Senate Rackets Group Requests Authorization

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower authorized the Senate Rackets Committee today to examine income and other tax returns of any individual it is investigating.

The authorization, covering returns since 1945, was granted by the President under regulations governing the inspection of returns by congressional committees.

The White House said the authorization was requested by the special Senate committee investigating alleged links between the Teamsters Union, racketeers and politicians in Portland, Ore. The authorization covers inspection of income, excess profits, es-

Party Foes File Petitions

The stage is set for a "knock down, drag 'em out" primary fight within the ranks of the Middletown Township Democratic party. Two complete slates of candidates for seven township-wide offices have been drawn.

On Saturday petitions for the organization candidates were filed with the county Board of Elections.

Before today is over, similar petitions for all of the opposition candidates are expected to be filed. Today is the deadline for filing candidacy petitions.

The opposition slate is backed by six of the 10 party committee people in the township.

William Oettinger, who is running for justice of the peace, was the first person in the county to file his petition last month. Oettinger is the incumbent justice of the peace.

Mrs. Meir Puts Israeli Plea To Dulles

Seeks American Action To Assure Rights In Mideast

WASHINGTON (UP)—Israeli Foreign Minister Golda Meir puts before Secretary of State John Foster Dulles today her country's plea for strong American action to keep Egypt from renewing attacks on Israeli territory and shipping.

Both arrived here yesterday—Dulles from Australia and Mrs. Meir from Jerusalem via Paris. A conference between the two was expected to be arranged early today.

Dulles entered the meeting under bipartisan notice from the Senate's leadership that Egypt must be dealt with firmly.

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex) said during the week end that the United States may lose the confidence of the world if "we acquiesce" in Egyptian actions which "go beyond the bounds of reason."

U.S. Policies Investigated
Republican Leader William F. Knowland (Calif) said Egypt would be "well advised not to push its luck too far" in the Gaza Strip. Knowland said the United Nations should maintain a "military cordon" between Israel and Egypt.

The United Nations appeared to be taking steps to set up just such a "cordon." A Norwegian-Danish battalion stationed in the northern sector of the Gaza Strip announced it was beginning a gradual movement to positions on the Egyptian-Israeli truce demarcation line in 48 hours.

Another spotlight was focused on the overall Mideast situation today when two Senate committees opened a "full-scale" investigation of U.S. Middle East policies. The first witness was C. D. Jackson, former psychological warfare adviser to President Eisenhower.

Vice President Rushes Home, Takes Oath

President's Charred Body Brought Down From Cebu Hills

By WILLIAM MILLER
United Press Staff Correspondent

MANILA — UP — Carlos P. Garcia took the oath of office as president of the Philippines tonight, succeeding President Ramon Magsaysay whose charred body was found today in the smoldering wreckage of his private plane.

Reports of an explosion before the crash of the plane carrying Magsaysay and 25 other persons led government officials to fear the C47 transport carrying the anti-Communist leader might have been sabotaged.

Garcia, the vice president and foreign minister under Magsaysay, rushed here from Australia where he had attended a meeting of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization. He went to the Malacanang Palace tonight for the ceremony after visiting Magsaysay's weeping widow.

Today the body of the president was brought down from the jungle-covered mountains of Cebu to Cebu City where 10,000 bareheaded Filipinos stood silently under a blazing sun. Many were in tears.

Two American Marine helicopters brought down the charred bodies of the victims of Sunday's plane crash. There was only one survivor, a Manila newspaperman, Nestor Mata, a reporter for the Philippines Herald.

A Logical Target
It was his report of an explosion before the crash that sent special investigators to the scene. Magsaysay, a leading anti-Communist in Asia who was able to stamp out the Red-tinted Huk rebels, would have been a logical target for assassination.

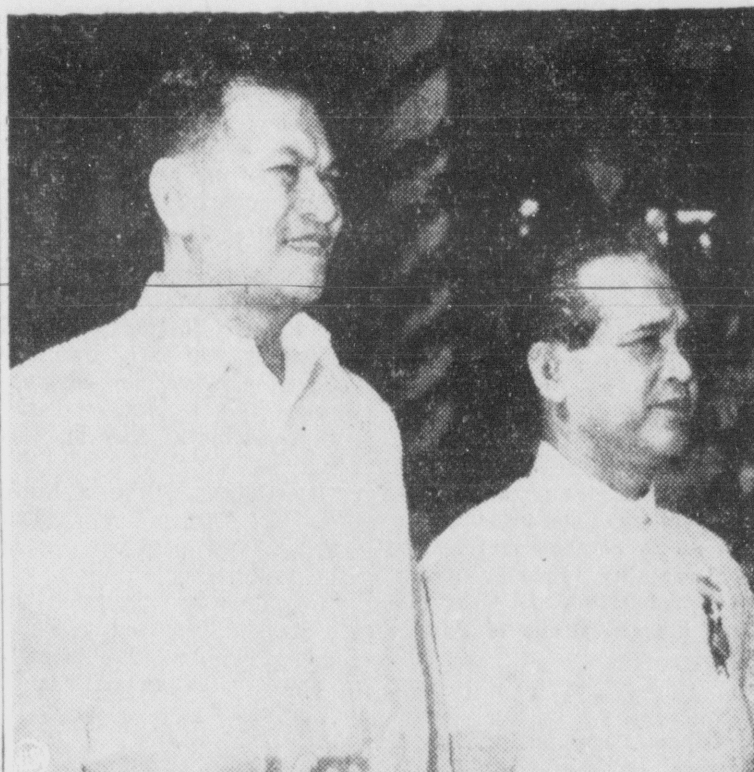

Garcia became president by law the moment Magsaysay's death was announced by the Malacanang (presidential) Palace, but he could have refused to take the oath of office.

He said before leaving Australia no new election will be held until the regular one scheduled for November.

Magsaysay and at least 24 other persons, including some top government officials, were killed early Sunday when the twin-engine C47 crashed on a mountain in the jungles shortly after taking off from Cebu City for a 400-mile flight to Manila.

Magsaysay's death dealt a se-

Big Search Party Finds Runaway Youth In Woods

Over 150 police and firemen combed a wooded area in Lower Makefield Township for more than an hour last night before coming up with a boy who ran away from home.

Lower Makefield Police Chief Robert Waterson, said the boy, who is mentally disturbed and does not attend school, ran away from home about 10:30.

Firemen from Falls Township, Levittown No. 1, Fairless Hills, and Yardley hustled to the scene to aid Lower Makefield, Yardley and Falls police in the search.

Chief Waterson said the floodlights from the fire trucks threw enough light into the area to make it "look like daylight."

Police and firemen battled the thick brush and heavily wooded area for more than an hour with no success.

Crawling On Knees
Shortly before midnight, a group of searchers came upon the boy crawling on his hands and knees deep in the woods behind Big Oak Road.

The boy offered no resistance and wouldn't explain to Chief Waterson why he had run away from home.

A volunteer fireman reportedly said the boy ran away from home after a dispute with his mother.

Chief Waterson said the boy was returned to his parents last night and no further action would be taken.

MIAMI (UP)—Two violent explosions rocked the Liberian tanker S. S. Perama in the Gulf of Mexico today but the Coast Guard said no one was injured and the 25-man crew abandoned ship quickly.

The Coast Guard said the decks of the 445-foot tanker were almost awash when the crew took to the lifeboats.

station operator and his visiting cousin from New Jersey, who went into the cove up to their necks to guide and pull them to shore.

John Olivieri, 32, of 43 Russett lane, Red Cedar Hill, was at his station at Main street and Fall-sington avenue with his cousin, William Dando, 24, of Rahway, N. J., when someone told them of the sinking boat.

Wade Into Water
The men got in a car and went down River road, Mr. Dando undressing as Mr. Olivieri drove. Mr. Olivieri waded and his cousin swam into the water. Mr. Dando swam out to push one of the boys in from behind. The Tullytown Fire Co. gave both men blankets to warm up in to drive to Mr. Olivieri's home.

Just how far the boys were from shore before the men pulled them out could not be accurately determined.

Estimates ranged from two feet to 50. Mr. Olivieri did notice how far out he waded, but noted that the cove bottom had a gradual slope before becoming neck-deep. The boys were in over their heads when the men grabbed them, he said.

"We swam to within two feet of the bank," Edwards, a Levittown Times carrier boy, said from his hospital bed this morning. "Then some men carried out ing. 'Then some men came out and carried us in. We were too exhausted to walk.'"

The near-mishap occurred at about 3 p.m. yesterday, after Robert and Donald, with two other companions, bicycled down River road in Tullytown which is off the Delaware River, near the mouth of Martins Creek.

"There had been four boats there," Donald said. "And all but one had sunk the night before. We salvaged some of them."

"We got into the boat because we thought we saw a pair of oars floating out in the cove," he said. "But when we got out there we found they were not oars."

Lacking oars, the boys used two wide, long planks as paddles to navigate the boat.

"I was sitting in back," Robert said, "and when we got out there I saw and felt the choppy waves breaking over the back into the boat. I yelled to Don that I was getting wet."

"The water poured in," said Donald, "as we started back. when it got up to my waist, I yelled, 'let's abandon ship.'"

Fun at First

"At first it seemed like fun," said Robert, "but after swimming awhile we wondered if we would make it. Each of us worried about the other and kept looking over."

Meanwhile, the two landbound companions, Donald Griffin, 14, of 22 Millcreek road, Green Lynne and Kenneth Michaels, 16, 41 Inland road, went for help.

Donald shed most of his clothes, and lost some money and a cigarette lighter, as well as his shoes and trousers. Robert, however, was not about to get his clothing off and was weighed down in the water.

"It was some men from a gas station who helped us ashore," the boys said.

Given Oxygen

Bristol Emergency Squad, the Tullytown Fire co., and Tullytown police were called. The squadmen gave both boys oxygen. They were carried in stretchers some 2,000 feet to the squad ambulance, over a route that included a narrow plank bridge across the creek.

David is a sophomore at Father Judge Catholic High School, Philadelphia, Robert is in ninth grade at Benjamin Franklin Junior High, Levittown.

Levittown Man Gets Out By Car Door

A Levittown cab driver who can't swim almost was forced to learn when he drove his cab into the Delaware Canal in Morrisville Friday night.

Joseph Ciani, 35, of 22 Needle-pine Lane, was driving his cab in the rain from Trenton to pick up a fare at Morrisville Shopping Center.

Makes Turn
Not being familiar with the area, he crossed the bridge from Trenton and was moving along Delmor Avenue when he turned to Hillside Avenue.

Instead of landing on Hillside Avenue, he landed in the canal. Mrs. Joseph Ciani said this morning her husband got out by pushing the door open on the driver's side and leaping on to the bank.

"He can't swim a stroke and is deathly afraid of water. I'm sure he got out before he even knew he was in water," she said.

Water was in the cab up to the dash board and the vehicle is still drying out, she said.

The cab was hauled out about an hour later.

Seeing Levittown

By LEE GARB

Surprise!!! And first off, to all you wonderful people who said you're glad that I'm going to come back to writing this baby of mine...thanks a lot! You almost frightened me out of the whole deal! We want to wish Jim Ort success in this new position with Radio Station WBUX in Doylestown before getting started and next in line is to see Levittown as it is today rather than the way it was when "Seeing Levittown" started back in '54. Still a great place... only difference is that now we need half a page!

Things haven't changed too much from what I've picked up thus far, (altho it's still early in the day. Someone called to ask why street lights are on during the day in some sections. Still seems an unanswerable question... s'pose you could say we've got "street lights to burn...")

We also hear that giant boxer dogs who are reputed to dig up rhododendron roots at lightning speed) are, with detrimental effects, rearranging the expensive shrubbery at the Walt Disney School. Heck of it is that some of them don't even live in the Tullytown School District! They cross over from Falls Township. Perhaps some sort of recreational program would be the solution to these particular delinquents?

Notice to insomnia victims: We don't want to be redundant, but if you're one of those well-meaning but terrified victims of procrastination... take back those books to the Levittown Library while you can still do it without going to the poorhouse! This week the fines are half-price... 1 cent per book per day instead of two cents, and the maximum fine on any book is fifty cents instead of a dollar! C'mon, you slow readers... clear your consciences!

Man Struck By Car On Freeway

A Philadelphia man who said he was on his way home was injured last night at 7:45 when a car hit him as he walked on the Route 13 freeway, in Tullytown.

The injured man was Charles Bowles, 41, of 29 Roosevelt street, taken to Lower Bucks County Hospital with a fractured leg and abrasions of the head and face. Levittown Emergency Squad gave first aid and took him to the hospital.

No charges were filed against the driver of the car that hit him, Francis A. Lenoir, Jr., 71, of 3349 St. Vincent street, Philadelphia.

Lenoir, driving south on the Freeway near the concrete hopper, told Tullytown Police Chief John B. Walcker he did not see the man on the road. Two Falls township policemen who happened to be driving behind Lenoir said they had not seen the injured man. They said Lenoir was driving at 35 to 40 miles an hour.

rious blow to American policy plans in The Philippines, and political observers predicted a long period of political unrest. He had come to power with strong American backing, and American officials were deeply shocked.

Messages of condolence poured in from throughout the world. President Eisenhower said the anti-Communist leader "will be greatly missed." Magsaysay had planned to visit Mr. Eisenhower this spring.

Dozens of Philippine and American planes and ships began combing the island nation by air and sea early Sunday when the plane failed to arrive in Manila after Magsaysay delivered a round of college commencement speeches in Cebu City.

Wreckage Spotted

The crew of a U. S. Air Force plane spotted the missing aircraft shortly after daybreak Sunday on jungle-covered Mount Bagnio, only 22 miles north of Cebu City.

Only one person survived the crash. He was Nestor Mata, a reporter for the Philippines Herald of Manila.

Mata's report that the plane exploded before it crashed sent additional government agents hurrying to the scene to investigate the possibility of sabotage.

Mrs. Meir told newsmen she wants to find out what steps the United States will take to assure Israel's security. She was expected to press Israel's demand for U.S. assurances that the disputed Gaza Strip will be restored to full United Nations control and that Israeli ships will have access to the Gulf of Aqaba and Suez Canal. It was on the basis of these "assumptions" that Israel pulled her forces out of Egypt.

Ike Will Watch Guided Missile Show On Cruise

ABOARD THE EISENHOWER ESCORT SHIP (UP) — President Eisenhower planned today to watch a display of America's guided missile might on his get-well cruise in tropical waters.

Mr. Eisenhower showed obvious improvement from his lingering cold. His cough has been lessening steadily and he told reporters yesterday: "I am feeling very good."

Though Mr. Eisenhower expected to take it easy a good part of the day, he kept in close touch with international developments, particularly in the tense Middle East. The State Department sent him up-to-the-minute reports on the situation.

The Chief Executive also was expected to confer by closed circuit radio with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, who returned to Washington Sunday from a meeting of the Southeast Asia Treaty powers in Australia.

The President "showed a very great personal concern" at the tragic death of Philippines President Ramon Magsaysay, who was killed in an airplane crash. Mr. Eisenhower issued a statement last night mourning the loss of a "valiant champion of freedom."

The President loafed today aboard the guided missile cruiser Canberra in the glistening, coral-bottomed waters off tiny San Salvador Island in the Bahamas Island chain. He will cruise leisurely tonight in the direction of Bermuda where he will meet with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan for unity talks March 21-24. He is expected to arrive at Hamilton Wednesday.

Consolidation To Increase Postal Service

Fred Ziegler, Bucks County Republican chairman, today announced that Congressman Willard S. Curtin had informed him that a plan has been approved for the immediate increase of door to door postal service in the Davisville-Southampton area.

Ziegler said, "Every effort is being made to begin the new operation as of April 1 but we cannot promise that all details can be worked out in such a short time."

Casey Hill Area

The present Davisville Post Office will become a Contract station under the Southampton Post Office. There will be boxes available for those who want to continue to use them. The Casey Hill area will be one of the large residential areas that will receive door to door delivery out of the Southampton Post Office.

Ziegler also emphasized that both Congressman Curtin and the County Committee have been in touch with postal officials for some time in order to work out this new delivery schedule. # 3 Missing Scouts Found GATLINBURG, Tenn. (UP)—Three Boy Scouts, missing since late yesterday in the picturesque Great Smoky Mountains, were found safe but shivering cold today.

Rangers of the Great Smoky Mountain National Park found the boys huddled beneath a shed outside a small lodge atop Mt. Leconte, one of the nation's most picturesque natural sights.

Victor Thorne, 13; Jimmy Grubbs, 12, and Mike Harmon, 11, members of Greenville, Tenn., Scout Troop 94, wandered off the Appalachian Trail yesterday while hiking with fellow scouts. An all-night search failed to turn them up and by dawn a force of 75 men, using walkie-talkie radio was scouring the fog-shrouded peaks.

Chief Ranger C. E. Johnson announced at 7:45 a.m. that the boys were found atop Mt. Leconte on the Tennessee side of the Smokies. The boys had followed a trail up the mountain and apparently too weary to move a step further, collapsed and went to sleep outside a small lodge which had been constructed for travelers on the mountain top.
